

Model Business Documents

If you're looking for guidance in drafting business documents, look no further than our Model Business Documents page. Search from an abundance of industry-specific, real world documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which can serve as templates or provide model precedent language.

Limit your results by index membership to get documents for high profile companies, such as the Fortune 500. You can also filter by a particular industry. Need to see how big players in the high tech industry have put together license agreements for proprietary technologies? Or how oil pipeline companies have drawn up service agreements with refineries? We put the documents at your fingertips.

- Search entire document for key terms or phrases using advanced relevance text search.
- Facets dynamically update as you search, offering you a road map to your results and allowing you to refine your search parameters as you go.
- Quickly identify the best results with Keyword-in-Context highlighting of text search terms.
- Share your results by email, or export them to your Document Cart, where you can batch download them into a zip file or publish a composite document culled from items you've collected.
- Choose from among agreements, commitment letters, indentures, credit facilities, leases, covenants, charters, bylaws, opinions, and more.
- Our collection includes not only common exhibit types like Merger Agreements and Employment Agreements, but also obscure or esoteric documents that are hard to find elsewhere.
- Most documents are available in your choice of Word, HTML, or PDF formats.
